2014 - 15 Fellowship Programme

The National Development Agency's (NDA) primary mandate is to contribute towards the eradication of poverty and its causes by granting funds to civil society organisations, for the purpose of implementing development projects for poor communities and strengthening the institutional capacity of other civil society organisations that provide services to poor communities.

To deliver its mandate, the NDA has introduced the Jessica Fortuin Fellowship (JFF). The purpose of the Fellowship is to promote and enhance community development through building a pool of development professionals who will acquire skills in designing, implementing and supervising community development programmes and projects. This will be achieved by identifying and developing prospective graduates through a coordinated programme at the NDA and other development organisations.

The JFF is launching its first 2014/15 Internship Programme intake for unemployed graduates to acquire meaningful work experience.
